

PALOMA CARTWRIGHT

6520 El Colegio Rd, Goleta, CA 93117

Phone: (805) 294-5880

Email: palomacartwright@bren.ucsb.edu

EDUCATION

Master of Environmental Data Science

Bren School of Environmental Science and Management, University of California Santa Barbara
Expected June 2022

Bachelor of Arts Computer Science and Environment

McGill University, June 2021

Ministry of Higher Education, Quebec - Excellence Bursary for Computer Science 2021

James McGill Scholarship for Academic Excellence and Outstanding Leadership

VP Events – Caribbean Student Society

EXPERIENCE

Information Technology Coordinator – Long Island Boat Rentals and Tours, 2016 – Present

- Coordinator for all technological aspects for the business including web development

Intern – Bimini Biological Field Station Foundation – Sharklab, June and July 2019

- Summer Intern at the Bimini Sharklab working with a team of 20, studying the marine environment around Bimini and the interactions of the animals that reside there.

Summer Intern – Bahamas Sea Turtle Research Institute, 2014 – 2019

- Assisted with turtle tagging and data collection during summers with all turtle species present in The Islands of The Bahamas.

Certified Instructor – Bahamas National Sailing School, 2014 – 2019

- Teaching sailing to children ages 8 – 16 in various sailboats at all levels of experience. Organized and directed of 1st Annual Mack Knowles Junior Sailing Club Summer Sailing Camp, leading a team of 5 Instructors and over 75 children.

Junior Director of Tourism, 2016 – 2017

- Deputy Junior Minister of Tourism for the Bahamas and Junior Director of Tourism for Long Island

Intern – Bahamas Marine Mammal Research Organization, 2015

- Summer internship with the BMMRO studying populations of marine mammals surrounding Abaco, Bahamas, including dolphins, whales, and manatees

SKILLS

Proficient in R, Python, SQL, Java, CSS, HTML and JavaScript Coding Languages

Experience using Github, Google Drive and Microsoft Office

Web Development with JavaScript Certified – Lighthouse Labs, Montreal

IANTD (Scuba) Certified

Excellent Leadership and Communication Skills

Strong Research, Editing, Writing and Analytical Skills